—Miss Abbie Devine has arrived from New York to spend the summer with her mother in this city.

—R. L. Johnson, foreman at the Sun office, and wife have been visiting with relatives at Freeport.

—Miss Anna Bolman, of Nelson, who was seriously ill from a relapse of la grippe, is slowly recovering.

—Mrs. T. A. Conlee, daughter, Miss Nettie, and son, Bruce, have gone to Indianapolis, Indiana, for a visit.

—Mrs H. A. Granger and daughter, Miss Granger, of Bluff Park, leave in the morning for a month's visit at Chicago.

—Will Reynolds has bought a bicycle. It appears to be rather a selfish way for so nice a young man to ride. No room for a companion.

—There will be no EVENING TELEGRAPH issued to-morrow, the printers desiring to celebrate the day, and we wish to give our readers rest, etc., etc.

—The artesian well drillers at Polo have succeeded in making a hole in the ground one thousand five hundred and twenty feet deep but there comes no flow of water; Polo is such a dry town.

—John Quillam, a young man twenty three years old, was shot to death at Galena Saturday night by Vincent Hill, of Council Hill. The murder was committed during a saloon quarrel.

—A twelve year old girl fell from a temporary bridge into Rock river at Rockford Sunday at a place where the water is twelve feet deep. A Mr. Swanburg leaped in and rescued the drowing girl.

—The race this afternoon at Maple Park was a very spirited affair and a large number of people witnessed the contest. "Midget" came out ahead in the three heats trotted; time (half mile) 1:30, 1:29 and 1:30.

—A fine start that which the Hennepin canal bill got yesterday evening when its friends put it through the Lower House of Congress. General Henderson, our congressman, has our thanks and congratulations.

—The Sterling Gazette says that the force of employes at the clock and watch factory has been reduced somewhat, pending the action of the stockholders in regard to increasing the working capital of the institution.

—Aquilla Spencer, one of Dixon's early settlers, now of Nebraska, is here on his way east, and will visit his old home in Center county, Pennsylvania; Philadelphia, Washington and other cities. He will make us a visit on his return.

—There were about one thousand people at Maple Park this afternoon to witness the race; showing how good a thing it is to advertise in THE EVENING TELEGRAPH. All the notice there was of the affair was a few lines in last night's issue.

—S. G. Campbell, our village blacksmith when Dixon was a village, is sixty-six years old to-day and just to show what he can do made up several as neat light, steel horse-shoes as ever fleet footed trotter trod upon. May he live to make many such.

—John Wasley visited Sterling yesterday and learned that the artesian well drillers, who have been operating in that city, are packing their machinery preparatory to starting for Dixon. We may anticipate that early next week they will be at work here.

—The man who robbed a Denver bank of twenty thousand dollars some time since by threatening to blow up the president with the entire concern, was captured in Missouri recently. He was arrested for horse stealing and while in jail confessed to the nitro-glycerine bluff.

—The sixth grade scholars at the High school building this morning presented Prof. E. C. Webster with a beautiful ring as a slight token of the esteem in which they, the teachers and pupils, hold him The Professor was greatly surprised and pleased and gave the children a very pleasant farewell talk

—Col. Morgan is finishing up Fred Watson's residence in cherry and oak and when completed we believe that there will be no finer wood work in our city, or elsewhere, than can be found in that residence. The side-board, made by Brink & Deeter, we may say in this connection, gives assurance to all who see it, that for neat cabinet work people need not send away from our own Dixon. A very pleasant home will Mr. Watson have, as we have heretofore remarked in regard to the charming location, overlooking the beautiful Rock River.

Suicide at Sweet Sixteen.

We are called upon to-day to record a case of suicide which has in it features peculiarly strange, for be it remembered that the rash act was attempted by one who is young and beautiful, with all the happiness of this world, we may say, still before her. We refer to a case of self-murder, for really that was what it was and nothing more nor less, which was attempted last night by Miss Dolly Metcalf, a young girl of nearly sixteen summers, who lives with her parents at the Central House, on Hennepin street, this city. Taking an opportunity when her mother was absent from the room, about 8 o'clock in the evening, the young lady drank a quantity of laudanum. Returning to her daughter's room the mother discovered that something was wrong with her, and therefore Dr. Payne was immediately sent for, and by hard work, continued a number of hours, the girl was brought back to consciousness. The girl, with her parents, came to this city from Cedar Falls, Iowa, about three weeks ago. Miss Dolly is only a little over fifteen years of age; a bright, beautiful girl, in full vigor of health, to all appearances. When called upon by the scribe to-day, the girl was not very talkative. She would not confess that she intended to commit suicide, insisting that she rather liked laudanum as a drink, and took it on that account. However, in conversation with her she casually dropped the remark that had she been left alone she "would be sleeping yet." Her mother intimated to the reporter that it is her opinion that the girl's trouble comes from an affair of love; it appearing that there is a young man in the case—or rather over in Iowa—who has so occupied the heart of the young creature that she has, through pining absence, become almost distracted, and was ready to give up the ghost because she thought she must give up the lad. The girl, however, insists that it is not for love, except love of laudnum, that she attempted the rash act.

At present writing the girl has so recovered that she is out of danger from the poison; but in our conversation with her we gained the opinion that though the doctor had pumped out of her the potion he had not succeeded as well with the notion—she appears to have as to suicide.

—Miss Mamie Reynolds has started from Colorado Springs for this city and Grand Rapids, Michigan, for a few months' visit. Miss Isabel Bosworth will leave Colorado Springs on Monday next for her home in this city. Edna Mead will accompany her and visit with her father, J. C. Mead, for a time.

—The Washington correspondents of the Chicago papers express the opinion that should the Hennepin canal appropriation bill pass, the work would first commence upon the dam and locks at the head of the feeder. It would be a fine thing for Dixon to have the money that the work would cost expended here immediately, to say nothing of the benefits of the canal.

—U. R. Friesenborg, General Manager of the Ashland, Wisconsin, Lighting Company, writes us an interesting letter descriptive of the lumber business of that wooden country. Lumber in beams is now being shipped to England to be sawed up in the old country. The extra fine saws used in England do not waste as much of the timber as those used in this country and the value of the saw dust there is almost enough to pay the saw bill. Furthermore the cheap labor over there is another advantage, says Mr. F.

—Anthony Duboyce's house, located in South Nachusa, about five miles south of this city on the Dixon and Chicago road, was destroyed by fire last night. The fire caught, it is supposed, in the back kitchen in a manner not known, and before the family was aware of the danger nearly the entire structure was in flames. Mr. and Mrs. Duboyce barely escaped with their lives, both climbing from the window in their night clothes. About everything in the house was destroyed, the entire loss amounting to about $1,500 with no insurance. The stables had a narrow escape. The owner has an idea that the fire was the act of an incendiary, but as near as we can guess from what we learn, it was an accident. The fright and shock to Mrs. Duboyce was a severe one, from which she will not soon recover. We understand that she is in a very nervous, prostrated condition.

However, Mr. Duboyce insists that the fire must have been started on the outside of the house, and he now believes that he might have extinguished the flames had he not been engaged in rescuing his wife from the fire. She was so mentally excited as to be entirely helpless.

GRAY AND BLUE.

Great Gathering of Ex-Confederates at Richmond.

THE WHOLE SOUTH REPRESENTED.

Old Soldiers in Gray Flock to Do Honor to the Memory of Their Chief by Attending the Dedication of the Lee Monument—The Military Ball—Vicksburg the Scene of a Fraternal Reunion—Jubal Early Pays His Respects to Longstreet.

RICHMOND, Va., May 29.—The city of Richmond is crowded to suffocation with visitors who came to witness the unveiling of the Lee statue to day. Trains from the north and from the south arrived at short intervals all yesterday. The crash of brass bands and the beating of drums is heard on every hand. Every one of the southern states sends a delegation in uniform. From every part of the state of Virginia people swarmed into Richmond until the hotels and private residences alike were overflowing, and every public hall was filled with cots. Nearly 5,000 Confederate veterans slept last night on cotton ticking spread over straw, the only bed that the committee on entertainment could provide.

The Decorations and the Ball.

Confederate emblems draped in graceful harmony with the national colors, festoon the fronts of houses and adorn the corridors of the hotels. State colors are swung like banners across the principal streets. The formal festivities were opened last evening at the Richmond theater with a military ball. The theater had been decorated for the occasion with an elaborate display of flags and bunting. From the center of the high ceiling was swung a canopy of streamers in the colors of Maryland and Virginia. The same colors prevailed in the plush drapery of the balconies. Along the border of each of the balconies were the coats-of-arms of the Confederate states, while between them hung banners of plush.

The Confederate Colors.

In the centre of the stage was a fountain half hidden from view in a bower of blossoming plants. Against the stage drop in the rear stood a bust of Lee. On either side was a stack of Confederate colors and beside them the coats of arms of Maryland and Virginia. The boxes on either side of the stage were dressed in the Confederate colors and the colors of Maryland and Virginia.

Gen. Lee's Daughters Present.

Miss Mary Lee and Miss Mildred Lee, daughters of Gen. R. E. Lee, assisted in the reception of the guests. The Army of Northern Virginia met in the hall of the house of delegates last night and heard an address by Gen. E. M. Low, of South Carolina. The election of officers for the ensuing year was then held, after which the body adjourned to Sanger hall and partook of a banquet. It was the largest gathering of the association since the war.

The Unveiling Ceremonies.

There were probably 100,000 strangers present yesterday at the dedication ceremonies, and the military and civic pageant surpassed anything ever seen here. Thousands of Confederate veterans in the historic gray marched in the line, and at the statue the throng was so dense that one might have walked on the sea of heads. A delegation of United States senators and members of the house of representatives, embracing nearly, if not quite all, the ex Confederates in congress, was present. Amid the wildest cheering Gen. Joseph E. Johnston pulled the veil off the statute. He was attended by a one legged veteran on one side, bearing the old headquarters flag of Pegram's artillery battalion, and by a one-armed veteran on the other, bearing an old battleflag, tattered and torn with bullets and age.

BLUE AND GRAY AT VICKSBURG.

They Shake Hands Across the Bloody Chasm With Great Enthusiasm.

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 29.—The soldiers swarmed over the hills yesterday morning in search of scenes of their former glory, and there being nothing on the programem to require their presence in the city the streets were comparatively quiet until 3 p. m. At that hour a large audience assembled at the pavilion to hear Hon. C. H. Hooker and Gen. Kountz, the orators of the day. Gen. Hooker's address was one of his most finished orations and won the applause of the entire assembly. While in no respect apologetic it was a manly assertion of the sincere faith of the South in the justice of its cause, at the same time according the same honesty of purpose to others.

Gen. Kountz Makes a Reply.

Gen. Kountz in replying complimented Col. Hooker and said he wished his remarks could be heard in every city in the north. He then addressed the audience as follows: "Comrades who wore the blue and comrades who wore the gray: I thank you more than I have words to express for this generous reception. I did not come here to make a speech, but to visit old scenes once more, to gaze upon the ground so familiar to us all during those eventful days of 1863 and which has been so consecrated by the blood so many brave men. How hard to realize the swiftness of the flying years. More than a quarter of a century since the "blue and gray" met in deadly conflict upon the historic battlefield. I am glad to be here and thank God that there are no serious differences to divide us."

JUBAL EARLY'S BAD BREAK.

He Calls Longstreet a Rascal with a Profane Emphasis.

NEW YORK, May 29.—A special to The Press from Richmond says that Gen. Jubal A. Early, while engaged in a hot discussion of war issues at the Exchange yesterday afternoon, was approached by a stranger, who tapped him on the shoulder and remarked: "My dear Gen. Longstreet, how do you do?" Early astonished his visitor by exclaiming savagely: "I want nothing to do with a man who mistakes me for such a damned rascal as James Longstreet."

Resented by Longstreet's Friend.

A friend of the latter who was standing by demanded retraction. Early refused, whereupon Longstreet's friend made a lunge for Early, but the latter was protected by his friends long enough to escape. The incident caused a sensation.

Gone to Honor Lee.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Most of the ex-Confederate members of both house and senate have gone to Richmond to do honor to the memory of the rebel Gen. Lee, by taking part in the exercises of unveiling of his monument which was dedicated to-day.

THEY STOOD BY HENNEPIN.

Passage by the House of the River and Harbor Bill—Senate Transactions.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—An amendment to the consular and diplomatic bill was reported in the senate yesterday, providing for the carrying out of the recommendations of the Pan American conference relating to the international railway. The anti-original packages bill then came up and was debated at length by Morgan and Turpie in opposition and Pugh, Blair, and others in advocacy. No action was taken. The house fortification bill was reported, the conference report on the bill for a public building at Cedar Rapids, Ia., was agreed to, and the senate adjourned.

Reed presided in the house. The successor of Sam J. Randall, Mr. Vaux, was sworn and took his seat. A bill was passed appropriating $125,000 for a national military park on the field of Chickamauga, but eight votes, all ex-Confederates, in the negative. Some routine business was then transacted, and in committee the river and harbor bill was again taken up. The chair overruled the point of order pending at adjournment Tuesday. An amendment was adopted authorizing a survey of the Illinois river from LaSalle to the Mississippi to ascertain what lands would be overflowed by the construction of a canal. A substitute for the whole bill was offered, appropriating $10,000,000 to be expended by a board of commissioners, but rejected. An attempt to strike out the Hennepin clause was defeated, and the bill was passed. The house then adjourned.

IMPORTANT LABOR CASE DECIDED.

Employers Must Keep Their Contracts with Non-Union Men.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 29.—A decision of importance of every labor union in the country was handed down in the supreme court here Tuesday in Luke Cox vs. the Albany Brewing company. The appeal was by defendant from a judgment of the county court for plaintiff. In April, 1888, during a strike of the defendant's regular employes the plaintiff and others were engaged to take the place of the strikers, the plaintiff being under verbal agreement to work for one year. When the strike was settled a few weeks later plaintiff was discharged, and then brought suit to recover wages for the balance of the year he was unemployed. The judgment in his favor is now affirmed, with costs. It is said that the labor unions will pay the expenses of the trial and also the man's salary.

His Girl Went Back on Him.

ST. PAUL, May 29.—It is now almost certain that the flight of Broker E. J. Cattell was due to an unfortunate love affair, which drove him to desperation. He was engaged a short while since to a wealthy belle residing near Central park, but the day for the wedding had never been set, as Cattell's convivial habits were a perpetual bar. Finally, as he proved that he had no control over his passion for drink, the lady broke the engagement. From that time Cattell plunged into dissipation and speculation and went rapidly to ruin.

Secretary Blaine Couldn't Go.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Secretary Blaine was not able to accompany the presidential party to Cleveland last night, and telegraphed his regrets. His place was supplied by Representative McKinley and Marshall Ransdell. Attorney-General Miller accompanied the party to Cleveland and will continue on to Indianapolis. The president's party, including the above named and Secretaries Windom and Rush and Postmaster General Wanamaker, left the city at 7:20 last evening.

Claasen Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, May 29.—In the United States circuit court last night the jury in the case of P. J. Claasen, on trial for appropriating funds of the Sixth National bank while its president, after six hours' deliberation returned a verdict of guilty. Claasen was taken to Ludlow Street jail. His wife shrieked and fainted when she heard the verdict, but the old gentleman remained calm. A motion for a new trial was entered and sentence was deferred.

Wants $50,000 for Wife and Children.

PITTSBURG, May 29.—J. C. Tarbell, of this city, has entered suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad company for $50,000 damages for the death of his wife and two children, who were on the day express the morning of the Johnstown flood. He blames the company for not coming back to Pittburg when it was seen they could not get through the flooded district. The case will come up for a hearing next Monday.

Liverpool Strikers Win.

LONDON, May 29.—The strike of the 300 timber-handlers on the Liverpool docks, which began Tuesday, to enforce their demand for an increase of wages to 6 shillings a day, was of short duration. As the strikers were backed by the Dockmen's union, and the employers were unable to procure men to take their places, the demands of the men were conceded, and work was resumed.

Give It to Him on the Balance.

WATERBURY, Conn., May 29.—An investigation of the books of the Smith & Griggs company shows that George Roberts, the chief bookkeeper, who was arrested several days ago for embezzlement, has stolen in all $30,000. He began stealing in 1871, and it is possible that the statute of limitation will let him out of penalty for his stealings during the first thirteen years.

The Man Who Robbed Moffat.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 29.—Mansfield King, the man who robbed President Moffat, of the Denver bank, of $21,000 a year ago, says he has made a proposition in writing to the bank officials to return the money and pay all the expense they have incurred in the matter, providing they agree not to prosecute him. Nothing has been heard from Denver in regard to the acceptance of the proposition as yet.

Generosity of O'Brien's Fiance.

LONDON May 29.—Mlle. Raffalovitch, who is to become the wife of Mr. William O'Brien, M. P., gave a dinner to 500 poor children at New Tipperary yesterday and crowned her charitable work for the day by donating a large sum to the support of the school conducted by nuns at that place. The dinner was a most successful affair and aroused the enthusiasm of young and old to a high pitch.

Four More National Banks.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—The following named national banks have been authorized to commence business: American national bank, of Galveston, Tex., capital $600,000; American national bank, of Austin, Tex., capital $100,000; First national bank, of Boulder, Mont., capital $50,000; First national bank, of Tekamah, Neb., capital $50,000.

A REPLY TO RASTER

The Zeitung Editor Wakes Up a Polish Jew.

VIGOROUS DEFENSE OF THE RACE.

A Few Remarks in Which There Are Some Odious Comparisons from a Prohibition Point of View—Close of the Milwaukee Roman Catholic Convention—The Resolutions Too Liberal for Bishop Katzer—Political Organization Effected.

CHICAGO, May 29.—The congressional subcommittee continued its hearings yesterday and had before it Potter Palmer, who concluded that he didn't want any restrictions on immigration; Chas. Jones, of Racine, who wanted the emigrants looked over by the consuls before they started from their country; John Anderson, who sang the praises of the Swedes and Norwegians; Staple E. Gordon, of Jefferson county, Wisconsin, who thought Europe was dumping her insane and criminals into this country and wanted rigid restrictions adopted, Charles R. Tuttle, a reporter, who seemed to object to the English because they did not immediately begin to help run the politics of this country, and several others, most of whom were like Editor Raster, down on the Polish Jews. James Burns, of the Carpenters' union of this city, gave to a part of the committee in private evidence that the alien contract law was being violated in this city.

A Defender of the Polish Jew.

But the most interesting witness was Emanuel W. Beckerman, a young Polish Jew, a publisher and resident of Chicago, who wanted to say a word for his countrymen, and he proved himself a vigorous and entertaining witness, and an able defender of his race and people. He said there were 10,000 Polish Jews in this city, and every one could read and write. "Our religion makes it necessary for us to be able to read and write, and there is no illiteracy among the Polish Jews. Scorn has been cast upon us since this committee commenced its session here, and I want to say it is not merited.

Some Virtues of the Race.

"We are used to scorn and persecution, however, having endured it from almost the beginning of time, but I don't propose to sit quietly and see men like Herman Raster malign, insult, and spit upon us. All of our people are well to do. There are no Polish Jews in the almshouses, the hospitals, jails, or penal institutions. Never in the history of this state has there ever been a Polish Jew in the penitentiary at Joliet. None of us is a public charge. We bear our share of the burdens of government, pay our taxes, educate our children, worship God, and believe in a high plane of public and private morality, and it is hard to hear the editor of The Staats-Zeitung speaking of us as the off-scourings of the earth.

Not of the Hyphenated Kind.

"I want to make the assertion here that of the twenty-five miles of saloon frontage in Chicago fully twenty-three and a half miles are owned and controlled by German-Americans. And right here I want to say you never heard of us calling ourselves Polish-Americans or Hebrew-Americans or anything of the kind. As soon as we get here we become Americans. We care not for Poland, but love America, the land of our choice, where the Jew as well as the Gentile can enjoy liberty of speech and opinion."

Would Bar Roman Catholics.

In regard to the present laws the witness wanted them changed so as to bar out Roman Catholics. He did not believe the consular inspection plan would do any good. "There would be big boodle in it," said Mr. Beckerman "and the consul would be hot after boodle. The average consul would issue an applicant a certificate to hell provided there was $5 in it for him."

There was one immigrant, or would-be immigrant, that no one said a good word for, and that was Ah Sin.

READY FOR THE SCHOOL FIGHT.

Wisconsin Roman Catholics Organized—Bishop Katzer's Dissatisfaction.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 29.—The convention of Roman Catholic societies yesterday elected Gustaf Kaiser president, Anton Bichel secretary—both of Milwaukee, and Jacob Horn, of La Crosse, treasurer. A plan of organization for the state campaign was adopted, declaring that the societies take action, as a matter of conscience, in the next state canvass. The plan includes a committee to watch the legislature for measures antagonistic to the Roman Catholic church. In fact, a most thorough organization for political purposes was effected.

Not Radical Enough for Katzer.

The facts of an incident that occurred yesterday just after the adoption of the resolutions have come out. Bishop Katzer went to the committee room—he having been absent when the resolutions were adopted, and asked to see a copy, with the air of a man who had been injured. When shown the resolutions he said he should have seen them before adoption. He insisted that they were too liberal in conceding the state control of a child even if the child's parents neglected it. The resolutions committee was firm, however, and the bishop retired very much dissatisfied. The convention adjourned sine die yesterday.

Where the President Will Summer.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—It is nearly settled that the president and his family will summer at Cape May Point, N. J., either with the postmaster general, who has a cottage there, or in a cottage that is being specially constructed for that purpose. At all events Mrs. Harrison has come to the conclusion that she does not want to spend another summer at Deer Park, and she is known to be very much impressed with the beauties of the Jersey sea shore.

Held a Bloody Celebration.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 29.—A Tribune special from Ottumwa, Ia., says: Andrew Sundberg, 65 years old, finished a thirty days' jail sentence Tuesday. He and his wife celebrated by getting drunk, when he inflicted mortal injuries on her and then cut his throat from ear to ear. Mrs. Sundberg died yesterday. Sundberg will live probably to stand trial for murder.

The Tough Mayor Was Absent.

CEDAR KEYS, Fla., May 29.—An election was held Monday for city clerk and assessor. R. A. Coachman was elected clerk and J. O. Andrews assessor. The city is very quiet and Mayor Cottrell is still "Down on the Suwanee River." The cutter McLane is lying off the city.

CAPTURED A SCOUNDREL.

Criminal Career of a Once Promising New Orleans Official.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Thomas J. Basso, ex-chief of detectives of New Orleans, who escaped November 20, 1886, from the state prison at Baton Rouge, where he was serving a 14-years sentence for forgery, was arrested here to-night. He says that after escaping he went to South America, but the climate was killing him, and he returned to New York penniless. He sought employment in vain and drifted to this city, where the police nabbed him.

The Prisoner's Dastardly Crime.

Basso was appointed a policeman in New Orleans when only 21 years old, and was so efficient that he gained rapid promotion until in 1883 he was made chief of the detective force. His crime was the forgery of a marriage certificate, by the aid of which he betrayed a young lady, whom he soon abandoned. The girl afterward shot him, and he narrowly escaped death at her hands. The grand jury refused to indict her for the assault, and indicted Basso for forgery, of which he was speedily convicted. He is held for extradition.

THE CONTRACT LABOR LAW.

A Construction by Windom Which Seems to Cover About Everything.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Secretary Windom has sent a letter to Immigrant Inspector Stitch, of Chicago, in reference to reported violations of the alien contract labor law by Canadian immigrants coming to Chicago, in which he quotes an advertisement clipped from a Canadian newspaper as follows: "Five hundred carpenters wanted—Good, competent men will be given steady work at from 30 to 40 cents per hour. Apply at Builders' exchange, 159 LaSalle street, Chicago." The secretary says that if carpenters—aliens—from Canada go to Chicago in acceptance of the above proposition, and work for the Builders' exchange, the completed transaction forms one of the prohibited contracts, and if the facts can be proven the Builders' exchange is liable to the penalties. He urges the inspector to be watchful of violations of the law, and to report all coming under his notice.

STOPPED THEIR GROG.

Speaker Reed Shuts Up the Bar in the House Restaurant.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—Speaker Reed issued an order yesterday which has caused consternation among the members. It was an order stopping the sale of liquor in the house restaurant. For some time past the vilest stuff has been sold in the house restaurant under the name of whisky, and the first order Speaker Reed issued on his return was the temperance one forbidding the house restaurant keeper to sell whisky.

Will Sell in Original Packages.

The order, however, does not prohibit the sale of wines, and the restaurateur says he will still sell wine in original packages. The immediate result of the order has been the driving of all thirsty people to the senate's restaurant, where liquor, beer and wines are still sold in broken packages and by the drink. The senate has control of this restaurant.

Seems Some Cause for Indignation.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 29.—A serious race war is threatened at Six Mile, a small town in Bibb county, fifty miles southwest of this city. Tuesday night a party of white men flogged three negro women who insulted three white women, which created great excitement among the negroes. They threatened vengeance and became demonstrative, when the whites armed themselves and dispersed them. The negroes are now organizing and gathering in force and trouble is feared.

Decrease in State Debts.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 29.—The census office has completed the tables of state debt, and they show that said debts have decreased in the last ten years to the aggregate amount of $54,598,484. The census office says that some of the reduction has been brought about—as it euphemistically expresses it—"by the enforced redemption of obligations at a discount." County indebtedness, however, has increased $34,454,756 during the ten years.

Bad Outlook for Rhine Wine.

LONDON, May 29.—The vineyards in the valley of the Rhine are being devastated by worms which infest the vines in such numbers that their extermination is impossible. It is estimated that hundreds of thousands of vines have already been destroyed, and the destruction of the entire crop is threatened.

Not a Pimple on Baby

Baby one year old. Bad with Eczema. Hair all gone. Scalp covered with eruption. Cured by Cuticura. Hair splendid and not a pimple on him.

Cured by Cuticura

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scald-head, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians, I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical, and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.

MRS. M. E. WOODSUM, Norway, Me

JOHN V. MINOR, Druggist, Gainesboro, Tenn.

We have been selling your CUTICURA REMEDIES for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of scrofula I ever saw was cured by them.

ANN ARBOR AGAIN.

The Students Seem to Hanker for Turbulence.

BLOODY ROW WITH CIRCUS MEN.

One Man Gets His Skull Fractured and a Large Number on Both Sides Carry Off Marks of the Fray—The Deadly Revolver Takes a Hand—A Cane Rush at Columbus, O., Spills Blood Galore.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 29.—Ann Arbor was the scene of a disgraceful riot Tuesday night, which may result in the death of one man, and has resulted in the serious injury of several. Franklin's circus exhibited here, and was attended by several hundred students. At the conclusion of the show the boys gathered in the ring and were having lots of sport. The concert was yet to be given, and the circus men, armed with tent stakes, invited the boys to go outside, which they did.

Attacked by the Roustabouts.

On the outside stood they stood in a crowd, when the roustabouts employed by the circus made an attack on them, mowing the boys down with their cudgels as fast as they could reach them. The boys ran to a safe distance, when the circus men began shooting revolvers. This aroused the ire of the boys and they decided to retaliate. The students armed themselves with clubs, stones, bricks, and several had revolvers. When the circus employes made another assault the students did not run, but gave them battle and a free fight ensued. This kind of work lasted some time.

Assault on the Circus Train.

Finally the students went to the Michigan Central tracks, where the circus train was standing, and the fight was renewed, the students getting the better of it. Here the car windows were smashed and the roustabouts beaten. This was kept up until a late hour, when the train went to Ypsilanti. The injured ones were about evenly divided between the two factions. The circus men carried away a number of sore heads, and one of their number, a colored man named Cook, was shot in the shoulder.

One Man Seriously Hurt.

He was taken to the homeopathic hospital and the wound probed, but the bullet could not be found. His injuries are not serious. A young farmer named Mason was struck on the head by the circus men, his skull being fractured. The bones were removed from the wound at the university hospital yesterday, and he now lies in a critical condition. A student named Noble suffered a slight fracture of the skull. The other wounded, while numerous, were not seriously hurt.

Strewed the Campus with Gore.

COLUMBUS, O., May 29.—A year of many exciting conflicts between the freshman and sophomore classes at the state university here culminated at noon yesterday in a "rush" between those classes, which lasted an hour and a half, and resulted in a number of broken heads, blackened eyes and bruised bodies. The faculty was entirely unable to stop the fray, and as the university is quite a distance from the city police aid could not be secured and the students fought until they were simply tired out. The campus was strewn with blood, fragments of collars, cuffs, hats, caps, shoes, shirts, and trousers, and the belligerent students were sorry looking objects as they dragged themselves from the field. Goodale of '92 and Scott of '93 were seriously injured.

Got Tired of His Jaw-Play.

SOFIA, May 29.—The trial of Major Panitza, who is charged with conspiring against Prince Ferdinand, was continued yesterday. His counsel pointed out that although Major Panitza was an officer in the palace guard, and commanded all the palace officials, he took no part in the revolutionary action, and abandoned all connection with revolutionary schemes after January 11. He spoke for four hours, and was proceding when the court ordered him to cease. He refused to comply with the demand, and the president then ordered him to leave the court room. The counsel then withdrew.

Illinois Prohibitionist Nominations.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., May 29.—The Prohibition state convention yesterday nominated R. Link for state treasurer, and Dr. Carl Johann for state superintendent of public schools. The committee on platform reported resolutions favoring national prohibition of the liquor traffic; free coinage of silver; the issue of money direct from the government; control of telegraph and railway lines by the government; a law authorizing a direct vote of the people for United States senators, and a tariff for revenue. A state central committee was appointed.

He Will Popoff No More.

NEW YORK, May 29.—John Popoff, the convicted murderer of Marie Petrikofsky, his sweetheart, was sentenced to state prison for the term of his natural life by Judge Fitzgerald Wednesday. The crime for which Popoff was sentenced was committed on the night of Jan. 22. Popoff had been a boarder in the house several months and had bothered the girl with his attentions. She had repeatedly refused to marry him and on the day in question he killed her.

Number One Put in a Protest.

BURLINGTON, Ia., May 29.—W. E. Gallup, a well-known patent right man, who travels selling state rights for the manufacture of artificial stone, has been arrested here on complaint of his wife, who lives in Ohio. He married Miss Molly Denny at Keokuk last week. He waived examination, and in default of $1,000 bonds was placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury.

De Blowitz Has a Big Scoop.

PARIS, May 29.—M. de Blowitz, the Paris correspondent of The London Times, with a view of forcing the pulication of the Talleyrand Memoirs, publishes a few extracts from them from memory, he having, at the instigation of M. Thiers, succeeded in reading the original manuscript. Unless this induces the publication of the book M. de Blowitz threatens to publish further extracts.

Passenger Rates To Be Restored.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The differences in regard to passenger rates in the northwest were all adjusted yesterday and an agreement signed by all the roads to restore passenger rates to the same figures as on Dec. 31. The agreement goes into effect on June 10 and will continue for sixty days. No road can withdraw except on thirty days notice.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

It does seem singular that so many people will let their skin become yellow, dark and greasy, (finally resulting in blotches and skin eruptions, as well as a general drying up of the blood, causing wrinkles and premature old age) when this can be remedied with so little expense. Two bottles of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will renew and purify the blood throughout the whole system, leaving the skin clear and free from all eruptions.

For all of these maladies Mr. Miles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by Tillson & Hayden. Treatise free. 3

People troubled with constipation should be very careful what kind of a laxative they use, as so many medicines are put up to sell which are absolutely without any merit or value, and which, if taken, will get your bowels in such a state that you will be compelled to keep on using physic the year around in order to enjoy any health. Beggs' Liver Pills will do more to keep a family in good health than any other Pills on the market, as they are put up with the utmost care, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

STERN BROS.,

OPERA BLOCK, DIXON

The bravest man is he who wears,
Regardless of remarks and stares,
The First Straw Hat!

A doctor will sit down and write a prescription, time five minutes, paper and ink one fourth of a cent and a patient pays $1 to $10 as the case may be. A lawyer will write ten or twelve lines as advice and gets $10 or $50 from his client. An editor will write a half column puff for a man, pay $1 for putting it into type, print it on $7 worth of paper, sends it to hundreds of subscribers, and then surprises the puffed man if he makes any charge. Then the newspaper men are compelled to shell out more than many of these professionals for public enterprises.

The Germantown Republican thus describes the hard lot of the country editor: "He riseth in the morning and knoweth not what a day may bring forth. If he telleth all the news he runneth a great risk of having a tin ear put on him, and if he telleth not the news the people say he is n. g., and there is no joy in it. The crafty man cajoleth him into giving him a 50-cent puff for a 5-cent cigar, and fond mothers frown on him if he fails to flatter their freckle-faced broods. And all his ways are ways of woe, and his days are full of sorrow. The life insurance man layeth snares for him, and on the whole he hath a deuce of a time."

—A Swedish resident of Rockford, says the Register, is building a unique dwelling. It is being constructed entirely of wood, but in a style that is not often seen even in this wooden country. The man has taken cord-wood and sawed it up into small blocks. These are laid in mortar pretty much as brick are laid, except that the walls are rough and ragged, the knots and chunks sticking out here and there like a boil on the back of your neck. It is said that a house built after that fashion is warmer during the hyperborean season than any other kind of a house made. But whether this is true or not it is certainly going to be a curiosity when finished.

—Miss Gridly, of Amboy, whose very sad condition THE TELEGRAPH has heretofore given as correctly as it could in a brief editorial, is still wrapped in a profound slumber Over two months have passed since this charming and much respected girl fell asleep one night and has not, except on the two occasions we heretofore described, appeared to show but very slight appearance of any more life than would be seen in a person sleeping soundly. A slight cough the other day, followed not long after by a sneeze, as we are creditably informed, gave the parents of the young lady hope that she might be arousing from the trance, which has so long kept her in the dream land. Efforts to arouse her in various ways, such as a slight tickle on the face; and other tests that would arouse from slumber any person in their normal condition, however sound the sleep, appear to have not much effect upon Miss Gridly. She does, we learn, sometimes move her head when her face is slightly tickled, so to speak, and appears to be effected by such a touch.

—The Forreston Herald thus deplores the state of affairs up there for the want of factories. Dixon has passed through that ordea.:

This town is fast becoming depopulated of young men. At least half a dozen left for Rockford this week, and more are to follow. They do not go there to be near heaven nor to see the self-styled Christ, but to find employment in Rockford's numerous factories. If this thing keeps up, Forreston will consist entirely of old men and women. If we wish to retain any young blood in our midst, we must establish manufacturing enterprises, otherwise they will leave as fast as they can find employment elsewhere, until finally the town plot will be plowed under and the site used as a pasture or wheat field. Agricultural pursuits are already carried on on Main street lots where once stood prosperous business houses. It is a shame for a town with three railroads centering in it to thus fall away.

Your Sublime Porte Turk is a suspicious being. A Greek benevolent society in Constantinople recently published a pamphlet, on the title-page of which was printed a quotation from Paul's Epistle to the Galatians. Of course one of the functionaries of the Government soon heard of it, and on his complaint an officer was sent to the printing office to arrest "one Paul" who had been writting letters to the people of Galatia (which is a suburb of Constantinople), and to get a copy of these presumably seditious letter. He was told that Paul died some time ago, and that the Galatia referred to was a province of the ancient Roman Empire. But it was no use, the editor was arrested and put in prison, where he might have remained indefinitely had not the Greek Patriarch come forward with a New-Testament and shown the officials Paul's letter.

—The Memorial Day Number of the Youth's Companion just issued will appeal especially to all those to whom our Decoration Day brings tender and sacred memories. The illustrations are of a high character and the stories of a patriotic nature. Among them is the $1,000 Prize Story for Girls entitled, "Way out in the Prairie Kentry." It tells in touching language how a devoted daughter secured the decoration of her father's grave. "Inside the Lines," in which two boys are the heroes; "Peggy Selden's Journey," an interesting story relating the experiences of a young girl, a tramp, a pet dog and some Yale students; "A Decoration Day Parade" and "Reunited" are stories full of the spirit of the day. Besides the stories there are other features, including poetry, short anecdotes, articles of information, with a whole page devoted to the entertainment of the very young children.

—The Peoria Journal has an able editorial upon the dangers that the provincial press encounters in following too freely the lead of the Chicago editors. The dailies of that city, both Democratic and Republican, are more for selfish aggrandizement than the party. The press which pretends to be Republican has for some time been engaged in abusing the men who work faithfully for the party, and the editors appear determined upon dividing the Republican forces.

The time has come, says the Journal, when the provincial press of both parties in Illinois must cut loose, as it were, from the Chicago press. The Republican party of the State is not blessed with any great metropolitan organ at the present time that can be relied upon. Among the two or three would be organs in that city, there is not a single one of them which has a kind word to say for the men that shaped the successful state campaign of 1888. On the contrary the senior and junior organs, as they are called, are engaged at the present time in stirring up discord in the ranks of the party.

The Empire Manufacturing Company that is about to move to Iowa is one of the most flourishing establishments of the sort in Sterling.—DIXON TELEGRAPH.

That there is no Empire Mfg. Co. in Sterling, and never has been, makes no difference to the DIXON TELEGRAPH, when it gets a chance to whack that rival city. We can hear of no Sterling factory about to move to Iowa.—Rock Falls News.

A very cunning quibble, Captain. The Sterling exchange from which we copied should have designated Rock Fall instead of Sterling and then we would not have been mislead into taking that "whack" at Sterling. It was, however, a very proper item of news and we do not exactly understand why you should get so cranky about it.

Mrs. Figg—Did you ever notice how Deacon Pottsby always begins his prayer with "Father, Thou knowest better than we?"

Mr. Figg (who goes to church merely to please his wife)—Yes, he thinks he is flattering the Lord by admitting that He knows more than himself—Terre Haute Express.

My offer of $100 has not been taken, nor would $500. The fact is, there is no pump made that can compete with the COMBINED AIR and CISTERN PUMP, for purifying water when used in combination with my well, for cisterns, it will draw water from the well or cistern, thus saving an extra pump. The well is improved, the water passes down below the bottom of the cistern through five feet of gravel and sand before entering the well, then upwards in the well through gravel, sand and charcoal, properly prepared and packed. This will keep the water cold, remove all live animal matter, and the well will not require to be repacked. How different from this is an ordinary well where the earth is the filter; there may be some dead reptile at the bottom of the well, or the water may contain poison. If water passing through the earth will become hard, adulterated with lime, why will it not hold filthy poisonous mater in solusion. The well will be furnished at a reasonable price. Price of cistern pump at shop, $4.00. There should be an air pump in every cistern where there is a chain or suction pump, it will keep the water good. Price of air pump $1 00.

E. EMMERT, Dixon, Ill.

DIXON, ILL., MAY 14, 1890.

We are using Emmert's Combined Air and Cistern pump, like it, and think it the true principle for purifying cistern water.
